

Hit double glass components

Minimize mortar waste - when used with glass centralizers, the HIT-RE 60 Glass mixer attachment helps inject an optimized amount of mortar for fastening, reducing materials required for glass balustrade ...

To learn more about the HIT-Glass Method, check out the HIT-Glass Brochure for reference. You can also watch the HIT-Glass installation how-to video (English and French) by using the QR code below.

HIT Double panels operate silently and have no moving parts. A double glass structure allows some sunlight to penetrate portions of the panel, creating brilliant light and shadows for aesthetic and ar ...

Discover how our HIT-Glass system can help make the installation of glass balustrades, balconies and railings faster, simpler and safer.

Installation kit for installing glass balustrades and handrails, including HIT-HY 270 mortar, EP foam positioning aids and HIT-RE 60-glass mixer attachments

We have the highest standards of excellence and experience in glass manufacturing and material choosing. With these standards we can ensure the high-quality products and the prosperous future ...

This innovative adhesive technology enhances safety by enabling mortar injection from the inner side of the glass pane, minimizing risks associated with working on exposed panels at heights.

Foam positioning aid to center and align glass panes in the metal shoe, for use with the HIT-HY 270 adhesive anchor

Hit double glass components

Web: <https://www.rocksteadyfloors.co.za>

